BOB WOODS

Longtime NHL Assistant Coach

Bob Woods has more than two decades of NHL coaching experience and most recently served as an Assistant Coach with the Seattle Kraken during the 2024–25 season.

A native of Leroy, Saskatchewan, Woods began his coaching career as a player-assistant with the ECHL's Mississippi Sea Wolves before joining the AHL's Hershey Bears in 2005. He was promoted to Head Coach in 2008 and captured the 2009 Calder Cup championship with the AHL's Hershey Bears.

His success in the AHL led to his first NHL role as an Assistant Coach with the Washington Capitals. Over the past 20 years, Woods has served as an Assistant Coach with the Anaheim Ducks, Buffalo Sabres, Minnesota Wild, and Seattle Kraken.

In 2025, Woods appeared in his 1,000th NHL game as an Assistant Coach, earning recognition for his ability to develop defensemen and manage special teams. He was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame in 2012, honouring his dual legacy as both a standout player and a respected coach.

As a player, Woods enjoyed a 12-year professional career from 1989 to 2001 as a defenseman, spending much of his time in the ECHL, where he set league records for goals by a defenseman (159) and ranked among the all-time leaders in points at his position. He also played in the AHL, IHL, and overseas, demonstrating the skill and leadership that later defined his coaching career.

DON GRANATO

NHL Head Coach

Don Granato most recently served as Head Coach of the Buffalo Sabres from 2020 to 2024, guiding the team through a pivotal stage of its rebuild. Recognized for his calm presence and development-first philosophy, he played a key role in the growth of Buffalo's young core.

Before becoming an NHL Head Coach, Granato was an Assistant Coach with both the Sabres and the Chicago Blackhawks. He also worked extensively with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, leading the U17 and U18 teams and helping develop several future NHL players. With USA Hockey, he earned multiple international medals, including gold at the 2015 IIHF U18 World Championship and bronze at the 2018 IIHF World Championship. He also served on the coaching staff at the 2014 IIHF World Championship and supported multiple U.S. World Junior teams.

Granato's professional coaching career includes serving as Head Coach of the AHL's Worcester IceCats, where he was named AHL Coach of the Year. He also led the ECHL's Peoria Rivermen to victory in the 2000 Kelly Cup championship. He began his coaching career in the USHL after a collegiate playing career at the University of Wisconsin, where he captained the Badgers to the 1990 NCAA championship.
